

Quality Improvement Training

We know that our healthcare organisations in Yorkshire and Humber all want to play their part in improving the quality and safety of patient care. The AHSN Improvement Academy is supporting health and care organisations to build capacity and capability among all staff groups, including frontline clinical staff, managers, IT, HR, administrative staff and executive directors.

For a discussion about how we can help your organisation please contact Angela Green, or see below for details of our Bronze, Silver and Gold QI Training and access online training now from your computer! Read Angela's Blog about reflecting upon quality improvement training in the NHS here.

Bronze QI Training—online training for all

We are excited to announce the launch of our on-line Bronze level Quality Improvement training. It is FREE and available for ALL healthcare providers, commissioners across Yorkshire and Humber and others interested in supporting or delivering improvement. Aimed at all staff groups, this foundation training introduces the Model for Improvement and some practical improvement tools followed by a short quiz at the end of each module. It takes approximately 2 hours to complete and on completing all the modules a certificate of completion can be printed off.

Access to the Bronze Training can be found here.

To discuss how we can support you to spread in your organisation please contact Angela Green

Silver level training includes a range of in-depth sessions around the practical application of quality improvement methods – from examples of methods, tools and techniques that engage multidisciplinary teams in quality improvement initiatives, to behaviour change. Silver training is divided into two separate 1-day training sessions :

- ⇒ Silver level for individuals
- ⇒ Silver level for teams

Silver Training in 2016

Gold Trainers

At Gold level we will offer a range of training that will support healthcare organisations to maintain and enhance a sustainable improvement culture within their services. Our 'train the trainer' programme and associated network is currently supporting 16 gold-level trainers from 10 organisations to deliver face-to-face 'silver for teams' QI training and project support within their own organisations. These trainees were selected by their QITAG organisational representative (see QITAG below). Future Gold Training will include "Quality Improvement for Boards". For further information please contact Maureen McGeorge.

Quality Improvement Training Advisory Group (QITAG)

The development and roll out of this training for Yorkshire and Humber has been advocated and supported by the regional QITAG. More information about the QITAG can be found here. To find out who represents your organisation on this group please contact Maureen McGeorge

New for 2016
