

Patient Care Priorities- elective LSCS

How important are the following?

Reducing starvation time pre and postop

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant
- Extremely Unimportant

Reducing time unable to drink pre and postop

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant
- Extremely Unimportant

Reduce time between surgery and mobility (out of bed)

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant
- Extremely Unimportant

Bowel function returning to normal as early as possible

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant
- Extremely Unimportant

Bladder function returning to normal as early as possible

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant
- Extremely Unimportant

Being able to look after baby independently as soon as possible

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant
- Extremely Unimportant

Removing urinary catheter as soon as possible

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant
- Extremely Unimportant

Being medically fit to be discharged home on day 1 postop

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant
- Extremely Unimportant

Keeping my hospital stay as short as possible

- Extremely Important
- Quite Important
- Slightly Important
- Neither
- Slightly Unimportant
- Quite Unimportant

Extremely Unimportant

Avoiding readmission to hospital

Extremely Important

Quite Important

Slightly Important

Neither

Slightly Unimportant

Quite Unimportant

Extremely Unimportant

Avoiding significant postop pain which delays discharge

Extremely Important

Quite Important

Slightly Important

Neither

Slightly Unimportant

Quite Unimportant

Extremely Unimportant

Parity

Primip

Multip

Ethnicity

Not sure how we record this! What do you think?

White

Asian

Other

Do not wish to say

Any other information?

Submit

Never submit passwords through Google Forms.

